

Rev. Timothy LeRoy McGuire

June 27, 1953 - August 16, 2018

Rev. Timothy LeRoy McGuire, 65, of Hampton, Iowa, passed away Thursday, August 16, 2018, at the Sheffield Care Center in Sheffield. He was born June 27, 1953, in Sycamore, Illinois, to Al and Hazel (Wheeler) McGuire. One of nine children, Tim grew up in Sycamore, Illinois. In 1970, the family moved to a dairy farm in Brodhead, Wisconsin, where Tim farmed with his brother Mark McGuire. He attended schools in Sycamore, Illinois and Brodhead, Wisconsin, graduating in 1972 from Brodhead High School. Tim was united in marriage to Sue Ellen Kersten on February 17, 1973, at Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church in Janesville, Wisconsin. To this union, three children were born; Bethany, Benjamin and Jonathan. Tim and Sue were dairy farmers for a number of years. After selling their farm, Tim worked various jobs until entering the ministry in 1983. He attended Vennard Bible College in University Park, Iowa. In the summer of 1985, Tim participated in a six-week mission trip to Bolivia, South America, with the World Gospel Mission. Tim graduated from Vennard Bible College in 1987 with a BA in Bible and Pastoral ministries. Following graduation, he served as pastor to the Primitive Methodist Church in New Diggings, Wisconsin, the Free Methodist Church in Osborne, Kansas, the Friends Church in Richland, Iowa, the Free Methodist in Waynesville, North Carolina and the Bennezette Wesleyan Church in rural Aredale, Iowa. Tim retired from ministry in 2012. He also worked several years at Sukup Manufacturing Co. in Sheffield, Iowa. Left to cherish his memory are his wife Sue, daughter Bethany (Bernard) Bell of San Jose, California, son Benjamin
