“ I first met Travis in White Knight Chronicles 2, thru his mom Callie. We had some good times on FF14arr, Neverwinter, Monster Hunter World, and Tera. He made us all laugh, and he will be missed.

“ I was fortunate enough to have met Travis through a mutual friend a couple of Summers ago when I first bought my PS4. In the short time that I knew him we immediately clicked. We shared a passion through gaming, but it was his sense of humor that turned our losses in the Call of Duty games into wins. Even if we lost, we won because Travis was on the team and made all of us laugh. Travis introduced me to new RPG games and took the time to help with quests. He cared. Even though I’ve never met him in person, the fact that he brought passion and laughter into our community was a gift I’ll never forget and will sorely miss. Not many people can make us heal from a bad day through the power of laughter, but Travis did that for me through a PlayStation headset a hundred miles away. In that way, he was special to me and will always have a place in my heart. Thank You Travis, for sharing your unique gift and your voice.
-Your Friend, Omar
