

Victor E. Wolf

April 4, 1949 - May 30, 2019

Victor E. Wolf, 70, of Hampton, Iowa, passed away Thursday, May 30, 2019, at Mayo Clinic Hospital - Saint Mary's Campus, in Rochester, Minnesota. He was born on April 4, 1949, in Hampton, Iowa, to William A. Wolf II and Martha A. Zoske. Vic graduated from Hampton High School and attended Iowa State University. He was united in marriage to Julianne Finck on December 15, 1973, in Lake City, Iowa. Vic was a farmer. He started his farming life with hogs and finished it with cattle. Vic also raised chickens, grew row crops using ridge till, and was a Garst Seed Salesman. Prior to farming, Vic worked for Groh/Alert Construction. He enjoyed farming with his John Deere and Farmall tractors. Vic was a member of the Hampton Gospel Hall. He was a Farm Bureau member and previously held positions on both the Soil Conservation Board and the Franklin County Fair Board. Vic enjoyed hunting and target shooting. He loved his Lord, enjoyed reading his Bible and most of all enjoyed spending time with his family. Vic had a great sense of humor and will be missed by many. Vic is survived by his wife Julianne Wolf of Hampton, daughter Mindy Rodamaker and her husband Russ of Iowa Falls, son Vic Wolf II and his wife Katy of Hampton, grandchildren Zach and Erica Rodamaker and Norma and Eleanor Wolf, brother Dean Wolf and his wife Jamey of Denver Colorado, sister Kathleen Walter of Washington state, as well as several nieces and nephews, and extended relatives. He was preceded in death by his parents, brother William Wolf III, and numerous other relatives. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be sent to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in memory of Vic.
