

Wayne Allen Harms

March 17, 1946 - November 14, 2024

Wayne Allen Harms, 78, of Cedar Rapids, formerly of Allison, passed away Thursday, November 14, 2024, at Cottage Grove Place in Cedar Rapids. Memorial services will be held at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, November 23, 2024, at Trinity Reformed Church in Allison. He will be laid to rest with a graveside inurnment at the Allison Cemetery. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service at the church on Saturday. Woodley Funeral Home and Crematory of Allison is caring for Wayne and his family.

Wayne was born March 17, 1946, to Harry and Susie (Ubben) Harms. He married Lorna Kramer on October 28, 1966. To this union, two sons were born. Wayne was employed at Nestle Beverage, formerly Carnation Company, in Waverly for 46 years. He retired in 2012.

Wayne was a person who could visit with anyone and enjoyed doing just that. Wayne was one to always keep busy. A quote of his was, "If you have time to lean, you have time to clean". Wayne enjoyed spending time fishing, playing cards, creating stainless steel art and winning at the casino. Of course, his pride and joy were his grandchildren. Everyone who knew Wayne loved him. He will be greatly missed.

Wayne is survived by his wife Lorna Harms of Cedar Rapids; sons Michael (Stacey) Harms of Clive, and Matthew (Kris) Harms of Cedar Rapids; grandchildren: Xander Harms of Clive, Brody Harms of Cedar Rapids and Sasha Harms of Clive; brother Delbert Harms of Clarksville and sister Karen Dralle of Clarksville. He was preceded in death by his parents and brother Roger Harms.
